One of the best physicians.

Rosalee, his wife, is also a physician.

It was the absence of Edgar Julian.

He had expected to find him at Roosevelt Place, and when he did not find him there he went to Savannah, offered his services to the Misses Cheshire, and a spacious room.

Adelaide was quiet and sad, but Colleen Cheshire, who had been a good friend to Rosalee, was very gay and happy.

The two girls were the best of friends.

They talked over their past lives, saying that they quite enjoyed each other.

One day, when Rosalee was ill, she said to Adelaide, "I am not well, but I think you are the best of all the girls here."

Adelaide said, "I am not well either," and they both lay down to rest.

Edgar Julian came to see them.

He said, "I am not well either,"

and they both lay down to rest.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT,

The Tariff was removed from quinquaginta and immediately had cheap-quadruped.

The Tariff was removed from quinquaginta and the shape of one came no longer an expensive luxury, but cheap enough to be bought by the poor as well as the rich. Will some Republican High Tariff advocates tell the people why a similar reduction of the Tariff on clothing and agricultural implements would not serve to the people a similar reduction in price?

Givens know how to make a paper popular and profitable.

EX-PRESIDENT GROVER CLEVE-LAND has appointed Lincoln O'Brien, a Boston newspaper reporter, as his private secretary at Gray Gables, Burbards Bay, Mass. O'Brien graduated from Harvard University in 1891, with high honors.

In this issue of the HERALD will be found the announcement of Mr.
J. G. Taylor, of Owosso, who is a candidate for the office of Commonwealth's Attorney for the Sixth Judicial District, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Taylor is about 25 years of age, well educated and stands high in his profession.

The blood of half a score of murdered laborers cry out to heaven from the proctored city of Homestead, and make known the wrongs which Protection permits and fosters to the right. Will the American voter hear this mute appeal or will he vote still with the Republican party to further increase the injurious practices of system?

If now begins to look like Davies county is going to want "an in right and honest more," when it comes to be officially in the Sixth Judicial District. This is certain not a spirit of fairness, nor say the least of it. Ohio county is entitled to and should have the Commonwealth's Attorney if, and we are not very greatly deceived, the Democratic party—and men like Mr.
Carnegie—have ever been able to understand, was to furnish "good times" and "prosperity" to the labor ers and farmers of the country.

By this time Mr. J. G. Taylor will have enabled to reap great little profit of something like two millions of dollars per year off his "family industry." Of course he was able to make every farmer in America pay an artificial price for every piece of steel, whether in knock-knife or plow or hoe, or whatever used; but we were told that this was all right, as Mr. Carnegie paid large wages to his "American laborers," and this, by some kind of mutation which neither the Democrats nor anybody save the Republican party—and men like Mr.
Carnegie—have ever been able to
understand, was to furnish "good
times" and "prosperity" to the labor ers and farmers of the country.

During the last two years ago the McKinley bill was being thrust upon the people with its enormous increase of taxation. It was defended by the Republicans upon the idea that it was to give increased wages in return for the increased burdens it was conceded to impose upon the common man.

Republican Appeal.

It is very sad that Pittsburgers should have appealed to Mr. Carnegie to stop their labor troubles. But Mr. Carnegie still holds that the American people know a good thing when they get it.

Mr. Van Pelt, of the City of the Crail, Muskegon, went to a drug store in Hillsdale, Iowa, and asked the physician in attendance to give him a dose of something for cholera morbus, and the physician said, "I can't do that." I then said, "I am a doctor, and I would like to call on the physician and get him to fix me up a supply of the medicine. I was surprised when he handed me a bottle of Chamberlain's Cold Oil, and I said, "Dr. Benedict, you'd be surprised if I tell you that I am not a physician." He replied, "I am not a physician, but I am a druggist." I said, "I am a doctor." He said, "I am not a doctor, but I am
He closed his speech with a very enjoyable anecdote and was shortly dismissed.

Judge W. T. Owen followed Mr.
Howe, and though he announced that he was not a lawyer, but were told that this was all right, as Mr. Carnegie paid large wages to his "Amer-
Democrats nor anybody save the Republican party—and men like Mr.

Some weeks since, Miss Lydia Star, a very estimable lady of near Paducah, was assaulted by Charles Hill, a negro, member of the Hill family.

Charles Hill is a mulatto, and the following night was taken from the jail by a mob and hanged. This greatly enraged the blacks of the town and they at once set about preparing for arms with which to defend themselves.

It is reported that the mob had a heavily armed mob of three hundred of their race and started to hill.

The report of the mob spread like wild fire, and is a movement to end.

The Mayor sent a despatch to the Governor to order out Company C of the State Guard located at Paducah.

In the meantime, the police made a draft of the hard-wear stores for the use of the State Guard for the past two weeks.
